HARVEY OPENS BRANCH WAREHOUSE IN ROCKAWAY, NEW JERSEY

New Facility Extends Strength and Presence of Region's Leading Manufacturer/Distributor of Windows, Doors and Building Products

Waltham, Mass. (August 19, 2008) — Continuing its measured growth throughout the Northeast, Harvey opened a 60,000-square-foot branch warehouse in Rockaway, New Jersey on Monday, August 18th. The facility, located at 52 Green Pond Road, marks the company's first branch location in New Jersey.

“Harvey is committed to being the best independent manufacturer and wholesale distributor, providing quality products and services to building and remodeling professionals. With the opening of our newest facility in Rockaway, we can extend that commitment to professional contractors and homeowners in New Jersey, from Montague to Trenton and Hoboken to Columbia,” said Vinnie Walsh, vice president of warehouse operations. “We look forward to establishing and maintaining mutually beneficial, long-term relationships with professional partners and customers in the region and we are especially excited to increase our customer support during a challenging economy when they need it most.”

In a special show of support, Harvey will host an Open House for its customers, centered on the theme, “Harvey has the key to your success”, at its new branch warehouse on Wednesday, September 17th from 7:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. A cookout will be held from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. and vendors and Harvey representatives will be available from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. to talk about building products and discuss business strategies. A raffle will be held, offering attendees an opportunity to win a variety of prizes including AZEK decking, up to $500 in Harvey Marketing Shop items, $100 gasoline cards, and a TracRac truck box, among others.
